How the Auction Works

In order to bid, you must register online at <https://apps.law.nyu.edu/pilcauction/>. This will provide you with a bidder number. This can be done before the auction, or if you have not registered online prior to the auction, you may fill out the above online form at the registration tables in Kushner Lounge (next to the grand staircase in the Vanderbilt Hall entrance).

Silent Auction

When bidding on an item, please write your name, bidder number, and the amount of your bid in the appropriate increment on the bid sheet associated with the item. You must have a bidder number for your bid to be considered valid.

For certain items, if you would like to guarantee that you win an item, you can use the Guaranteed Buy-Out Option. At the bottom of certain bid sheets is a line labeled “guaranteed buy-out.” The guaranteed buy-out price may be more than the value of the item, but if you choose to use this option, you are guaranteed to win that special item you’ve got your eye on. (This also means that if the guaranteed buy-out line is already filled out, the bidding on that item is closed.) And remember, every penny that you spend goes to support NYU students doing important work through their public interest summer internships!

When the announcement is made that the silent auction has closed (at 8pm), the highest bid at that time will be the winning bid. Winners will be notified by e-mail.

Raffle

At any time during the silent auction you can buy a raffle ticket for $1 ($10 for 12), which you can apply to any of the items on the Raffle list in this Program (look for the raffle boxes during the silent auction). Raffle results will be announced during the live auction – you must be present at the live auction to win!

Live Auction

If you wish to place a bid, please raise your card so that the auctioneer can read your bidder number. Please keep your card up until the auctioneer recognizes you. If you are the highest bidder for an item, an auction representative will approach you to confirm your bid. If you win the item, the credit card you used at the time of registration will be charged the amount you bid.

Redemption of Won Items

All winners will be notified via email as to pick-up instructions in the days following the auction. Please note: All auction gift certificates expire on March 1, 2016, unless otherwise noted. All items or certificates not picked up from an auction representative by April 1, 2015, will be considered forfeited. Individuals will still be charged for forfeited items. If you have any questions, please email the auction chairs at nyupilcauction@gmail.com.

F-001 - Dinner with Professor Williams

Donated by Andrew Williams

Enjoy dinner with Director of the Lawyering Program, Professor Andrew Williams, at his home (for up to 4 people). After graduating from NYU Law magna cum laude in 2002, Professor Williams was awarded a Skadden Fellowship to work at The Bronx Defenders, Civil Action Project, where he continued as a staff attorney prior to joining the Law School.

Williams provided civil legal advice, service, and representation to Bronx residents accused of crimes, as well as to their families, in order to mitigate the collateral consequences of being criminally charged. His practice spanned a broad range of civil matters, including public and private housing, criminal record errors, civil rights, welfare, forfeiture, employment and licensing. He also provided training and consulting for criminal defense attorneys. His research is in the area of criminal law and collateral consequences.

F-008 – Autographed Copy of Reason in a Dark Time

Donated by Dale Jamieson

Receive a signed copy of Professor Jamieson's book, “Reason in a Dark Time: Why the Struggle to Stop Climate Change Failed – and What it Means for Our Future.” In this book, Professor Jamieson explains what climate change is, why we have failed to stop it, and why it still matters that we do.

It has been hailed as an “invaluable contribution to the dialogue about how to minimize the inevitable social and environmental devastation that looms large in our future” (Booklist). It is “a must read by all who wish to bring reason to the challenges [of climate change] we are going to face very soon, whether we want to or not...” (Green Energy Times).

F-009 - Dinner in Chinatown with Professor Shaviro

Donated by Daniel Shaviro

Celebrate the Lunar New Year with Professor Daniel Shaviro at dinner in Chinatown (for up to 3 people). As one of the nation's leading legal scholars on tax policy, Professor Shaviro's work examines tax policy, budget policy, and entitlements issues. His list of published books includes "Fixing U.S. International Taxation," "Decoding the U.S. Corporate Tax," "Taxes, Spending, and the U.S. Government's March Toward Bankruptcy," "Who Should Pay for Medicare?" "Making Sense of Social Security Reform," "When Rules Change: An Economic and Political Analysis of Transition Relief and Retroactivity," and "Do Deficits Matter?"

After graduating from Yale Law School, Professor Shaviro spent time in private practice at Caplin & Drysdale, a leading tax specialty firm, and as a Legislation Attorney at the Joint Congressional Committee on Taxation, where he worked extensively on the Tax Reform Act of 1986. He was on the faculty at University of Chicago Law School before joining NYU Law in 1995.

F-010 - Professional Tax Return Preparation

Donated by David Spencer

Struggling to complete your taxes on time? Don't understand what any of these terms mean? Never fear, Professor David Spencer will prepare your tax return for you this year! Professor Spencer is an adjunct professor of law, teaching "Accounting for Tax Consequences."

He also has his own private practice in which he works with clients on tax planning, audit and appeal, small business investment, contracts, estates and wills, and financial products. After receiving his J.D. and LLM in Tax from NYU Law, Professor Spencer began his legal career in the tax department of Sullivan & Cromwell, and has since worked at Bank of America Merrill Lynch, HSBC and BNP Paribas as a front officer banker. This tax return preparation is for 1 person (student, faculty, or alumni).

F-012 - Dinner with Professor Rosenbloom

Donated by H. David Rosenbloom

Dine with Professor David Rosenbloom at the Harvard Club (for up to 4 people). Professor Rosenbloom became director of the International Tax Program at NYU Law in 2002. He is also a member of Caplin & Drysdale, a law firm he rejoined in 1981 after serving as International Tax Counsel and Director of the Office of International Tax Affairs in the U.S. Department of Treasury. Previously, he served as assistant to Ambassador Arthur Goldberg at the U.S. Mission to the UN and then clerked for Justice Fortas of the Supreme Court. He has also served as a Tax Policy Advisor for the U.S. Treasury, the OECD, USAID, and the World Bank in Eastern Europe, the former Soviet Union, Senegal, Malawi, and South Africa. A frequent speaker and author on tax subjects, Rosenbloom has taught international taxation and related subjects at the law schools at Stanford, Columbia, the University of Pennsylvania, and Harvard, and at educational institutions in Taipei, Mexico City, Milan, Bergamo, Sydney, Mainz, Heidelberg, Rio de Janeiro, Pretoria, Leiden, Melbourne, Bologna, Neuchatel, and Vienna.

F-013 - Dinner with Prof. Hershkoff & Judge Edwards

Donated by Helen Hershkoff

Voila - it's dinner at Volare! Join Judge Harry T. Edwards of the U.S. Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia Circuit and Professor Helen Hershkoff for a classic Italian dinner at Volare (for up to 2 people). Professor Hershkoff is a co-author of Friedenthal, Miller, Sexton, and Hershkoff's "Civil Procedure: Cases and Materials, co-editor/co-author of Civil Litigation in Comparative Context," and a member of the author team of the "Wright & Miller" treatise on federal procedure. Prior to joining NYU Law in 1995, she practiced law as a litigation associate at Paul, Weiss, Rifkind, Wharton & Garrison; as a staff attorney with The Legal Aid Society of New York; and as an associate legal director of the American Civil Liberties Union. In 1995, New York Magazine named her one of New York's best civil rights lawyers.

Judge Edwards was appointed to the D.C. Circuit in 1980 and served as chief judge from 1994 to 2001 before taking senior status. Before joining the bench, he was a tenured professor at University of Michigan Law School and at Harvard Law School. He has taught at NYU Law since 1990. Previously, he practiced law with Seyfarth, Shaw, Fairweather & Geraldson. He is the co-author of five books, author of numerous articles and papers, and member of the American Academy of Arts and Sciences; the Committee on Science, Technology, and Law at the National Academy of Sciences; the American Law Institute; the Board of Directors, Institute for Judicial Administration, New York University School of Law; the American Bar Association; the Supreme Court Historical Society; and a Fellow of the American Bar Foundation.

F-014 - Dinner with Professor Scott

Donated by Helen Scott

Broaden your horizons with some arts and leisure at The Dining Room at the Museum of Modern Art with Professor Helen Scott and her husband (for up to 4 people). Professor Scott is the Co-Director of the Mitchell Jacobson Leadership Program in Law & Business, a program involving student mentoring, research and curricular innovation in cooperation with NYU's Stern School of Business.

She has served as the co-chair of the Listing and Hearing Review Council of the NASDAQ Stock Market, which develops listing policy as well as hearing delisting appeals. She has also received the Legal Advocate of the Year Award from the U.S. Small Business Administration for her work on the ACE-Net (Angel Capital Network) program, a limited access electronic network for increasing the availability of equity capital to entrepreneurial businesses. Professor Scott previously worked in corporate practice at a major New York law firm.

F-015 - Dinner in Chinatown with Professor Jacobs

Donated by James B. Jacobs

Enjoy dinner with Professor James Jacobs in Chinatown (for up to 6 people). Professor Jacobs teaches first-year criminal law and upper-year electives on criminal procedure, federal criminal law, and juvenile justice, as well as various specialized seminars. Professor Jacobs has published 15 books and more than 100 articles.

His first book, “Stateville: The Penitentiary in Mass Society,” regarded as a penological classic, deals with the impact of gangs, public employee unionism, prisoners’ rights litigation, and other post–World War II phenomena on the social organization of the American prison. Five of his books, including his most recent (“Breaking the Devil’s Pact: The Battle to Free the Teamsters from the Mob”), document the government’s long-term campaign to eradicate Italian-American organized crime. Professor Jacobs was awarded a 2012-13 Guggenheim Fellowship to write “The Eternal Criminal Record,” which Harvard University Press will publish in 2015.

F-016 - Scrabble and Dessert with Prof. Strandburg

Donated by Katherine Jo Strandburg

Put your game face on and just try to beat Professor Katherine Strandburg in Scrabble. Luckily both winners and losers will still receive her dessert of homemade pie (up to 8 people). Professor Strandburg concentrates her teaching and research in the areas of patent law and innovation policy and information privacy law to consider how the law in these areas should reflect the importance of collaboration and social interactions and respond to technological change. Her legal analysis is informed by studies of user innovation and of knowledge commons governance.

Professor Strandburg attended University of Chicago Law School and served as a law clerk to the Judge Cudahy for the Seventh Circuit. She is an experienced litigator, is licensed to practice before the United States Patent and Trademark Office, and has authored several amicus briefs to the Supreme Court and federal appellate courts dealing with patent law and privacy issues. Prior to her legal career, Professor Strandburg was a research physicist at Argonne National Laboratory, having received her Ph.D. from Cornell University and conducted postdoctoral research at Carnegie Mellon.

F-017 - Walking tour of Chinatown & the Lower East Side with Profs. Branch, Levine, Shapiro & Simowitz

Take a walking tour of Chinatown and the Lower East Side with Professors Branch, Levine, Shapiro and Simowitz (up to 8 people).

New York's Lower East Side is one of the oldest, most historically significant areas in the U.S., encompassing several neighborhoods including the East Village, Little Italy, The Bowery and Chinatown. It is one of the most visited locales in the city, offering a unique combination of historic sites, shopping and eateries. Traditionally an immigrant, working-class neighborhood, it began rapid gentrification in the mid-2000s, prompting The National Trust for Historic Preservation to place the neighborhood on its list of America's Most Endangered Places. It has become a home to upscale boutiques and trendy dining establishments along Clinton Street's restaurant row.

F-018 - Breakfast with Prof. Chase & Judge Rosenblatt

Donated by Oscar Chase

Join Judge Albert Rosenblatt and Professor Oscar Chase for breakfast in the Village (for up to 3 people). Professor Chase teaches courses on civil procedure, including the first-year course and a seminar on comparative procedure, as well as Professional Responsibility. His books on procedure include “Civil Litigation in New York” and “Civil Litigation in Comparative Context.” He began his legal career as an attorney in the legal services program and was involved in establishing the law reform orientation of the first federally funded program in New York. He taught at Brooklyn Law School before joining NYU Law as Associate Dean in 1990 and as Vice Dean from 1994 to 1999.

Judge Rosenblatt is currently of counsel to McCabe & Mack LLP and a Judicial Fellow at NYU Law. He began his judicial career as a Dutchess County Court Judge before joining the New York Supreme Court in 1981. Judge Rosenblatt was appointed Chief Administrative Judge of New York State in 1987 and later served on the New York Supreme Court, Appellate Division. He was appointed to the New York Court of Appeals, serving from 1999 to 2006. Before joining the bench, he served two terms as a District Attorney of Dutchess County, New York.

F-019 - Basketball with Professor Epstein

Donated by Richard Epstein

Challenge Professor Richard Epstein to a game of 2-on-2 basketball! Considered one of the most influential thinkers in legal academia, Professor Epstein is known for his research and writings on a broad range of constitutional, economic, historical, and philosophical subjects.

His many books include “Takings: Private Property and the Power of Eminent Domain,” “Simple Rules for a Complex World,” and most recently, “The Classical Liberal Constitution: The Uncertain Quest for Limited Government.” Professor Epstein is the inaugural Laurence A. Tisch Professor of Law at NYU Law and also a professor at University of Chicago Law School. Must be redeemed before March 23 (for up to 3 people).

F-020 - Tennis, Brunch, & a Swim with Professor Katzen

Donated by Sally Katzen

Escape from the city and enjoy an active day of tennis, followed by brunch and swimming with Professor Sally Katzen in Washington, DC (for up to 3 people).

During the Clinton Administration, Professor Katzen served as Administrator of the Office of Management and Budget's Office of Information and Regulatory Affairs, Deputy Director on the National Economic Council, and Deputy Director for Management in the Office of Management and Budget. Previously, she was the first female partner at Wilmer, Cutler & Pickering, where she practiced administrative and legislative law for over two decades. In addition to teaching at NYU Law, Professor Katzen works as a Senior Advisor at the Podesta Group, a lobbying and public affairs firm based in Washington, DC.

F-021 - Drinks and Dessert with Professor Schulhofer

Donated by Stephen Schulhofer

Take in the New York skyline over drinks and dessert at a Manhattan rooftop with Professor Stephen Schulhofer (for up to 8 people). Professor Schulhofer is one of the nation's most distinguished scholars of criminal justice. He has written more than 50 scholarly articles and seven books, including the leading casebook in the field, and highly regarded, widely cited work on a range of criminal justice and national security topics. His current projects include analyses of national security secrecy, the right to privacy in electronic communications, and an empirical study of the impact of counterterrorism policing on immigrant communities in New York and London. In addition, he currently serves as the reporter for the American Law Institute's project to revise the sexual offense provisions of the Model Penal Code. Previously, Professor Schulhofer taught at University of Chicago Law School and University of Pennsylvania Law School. He clerked for Justice Black of the Supreme Court and practiced law for three years before beginning his academic career.

F-022 - Golf with Dean Morrison and Jon Mechanic

Donated by Trevor Morrison

Play a round of golf at the Bayonne Golf Course with Dean Trevor Morrison and Jon Mechanic, head of the Real Estate practice at Fried Frank (for up to 2 people). Dean Morrison joined NYU Law in 2013 from Columbia Law School, where he was faculty co-director of the Center for Constitutional Governance and faculty co-chair of the Hertog Program on Law and National Security. In 2009, he was associate counsel to President Barack Obama. Dean Morrison's research and teaching interests are in constitutional law, federal courts, and the law of the executive branch. He has developed particular renown for his expertise in constitutional law as practiced in the executive branch. Before entering academia, he was a law clerk to Judge Fletcher for the Ninth Circuit and Justice Ginsburg of the Supreme Court. Between the two clerkships, he was a Bristow Fellow in the US Justice Department's Office of the Solicitor General, an attorney-advisor in the Justice Department's Office of Legal Counsel, and an associate at Wilmer, Cutler & Pickering. He has also taught at Cornell Law School.

Jon Mechanic is chairman of Fried Frank's Real Estate Department, which he joined in 1978. He later became a partner in 1987, when he rejoined Fried Frank after having acted for five years as general counsel and a managing director of HRO International Ltd., a real estate development organization responsible for the development of more than 2.5 million square feet of office space in Manhattan. Mr. Mechanic routinely counsels developers, owners, investors, REITs and lenders in all aspects of commercial real estate transactions, including the acquisition, disposition and development of office, retail, hotel and mixed-use properties; commercial mortgage, mezzanine and construction financing; acquisition and sale of distressed debt; and joint ventures and restructurings. He also represents both landlords and tenants in commercial leasing and ground lease transactions. Mr. Mechanic lectures regularly at NYU Law, the Real Estate Board of New York and the Practising Law Institute, and is a co-author of The Commercial Office Lease Handbook published by the American Bar Association.

F-023 - Hi-Lo New York

Donated by Samuel Rascoff and Christopher Sprigman

Join Professors Samuel Rascoff and Christopher Sprigman for a trip to two New York institutions: a celebrated cocktail bar and an infamous dive (for up to 6 people).

Professor Rascoff teaches and writes in the area of national security law, and serves as faculty director of the Center on Law and Security. Before joining NYU Law in 2009, he served as Director of Intelligence Analysis at the New York City Police Department where he created and led a team responsible for assessing the terrorist threat to the city. Before entering academia, he was a special assistant with the Coalition Provisional Authority in Iraq and an associate at Wachtell, Lipton, Rosen & Katz. He also served as law clerk to Judge Leval for the Second Circuit and Justice Souter of the Supreme Court.

Professor Sprigman teaches intellectual property law, antitrust law, competition policy, and comparative constitutional law. Before joining NYU Law in 2013, he taught at the University of Virginia School of Law. From 1999 to 2001, he was an appellate counsel in the Antitrust Division of the U.S. Department of Justice, where US v. Microsoft was among his cases, and later was elected partner at King & Spalding before becoming a residential fellow at Stanford Law School's Center for Internet and Society. Professor Sprigman served as law clerk for Judge Reinhardt for the Ninth Circuit and Justice Lourens H. W. Ackermann of the Constitutional Court of South Africa, and has also taught at the University of the Witwatersrand's law school in Johannesburg.

H-006 – 3 Free Reform Classes at New York Pilates

Donated by New York Pilates

With recent temperatures reaching a balmy high of 8 degrees and summer right around the corner, there's no better time to get your core in shape.

Do so at New York Pilates, where you will receive a core and total body workout unparalleled in Manhattan. These free classes have a 3 month expiration date, but with your love of ab burning exercises, such an extended timeline is hardly necessary.

H-007 - GK Framing - $250 Framing Certificates

Donated by GK Framing

Believe it or not, graduation, and the diplomas it entails, is right around the corner. And with it comes the obligation to frame your certificate in an appropriately fabulous way.

Use these certificates to frame a copy for yourself, for your loved ones, and for that teacher in middle school who told you you'd never amount to anything. Because no success is better than revenge success.

This Tribeca framing shop has graciously donated three gift certificates to the auction!

LLM-002 - Tequila Corralejo 99,000 Horas

Donated by Lourdes Olvera-Marshall, Associate Director of the NYU Law Office of Graduate Affairs

Light gold color. Bold aromas of char-roasted pecans, river stones, grilled fruits, and caramel with a flat, dry-yet-fruity medium body and a smooth, bland, brisk, cream, peppery spices, grass, and driftwood finish with papery tannins and moderate oak. A wispy añejo with a strong barrel influence.

As Lourdes explains, “Mexicans don't take "shots" of tequila; they sip it as wine, and generally accompany it with lime juice. It can also be drunk as a Paloma, a beverage made of tequila, Fresca soda, and lime juice, or as a Charro Negro with coke and lime juice. It's rare to find Margaritas in Mexico, and Mexicans say that the best ones are made in the USA!”

T-001 - Beats by Dr. Dre XL Pill Speaker

Donated by Akin Gump Strauss Hauer & Feld

At last: a speaker crisp and loud enough to be subject to a time, place, or manner restriction while being small enough to qualify as de minimis in any briefcase.

Totally portable, the pill allows easy pairing: Just tap your phone to your Beats Pill XL and create an instant connection. Sync two Beats Pill XLs by tapping them together to play the same song. You can also tap them together twice to stereo your music, making one Beats Pill XL the left output and the other the right. What's more, Beats Pill XL has a visible battery fuel gauge so you'll always know how much power is left. Its rechargeable battery gives you 15 hours of continuous play and will automatically shut off after ten minutes of no signal detection to save power.

T-002 - Beats Studio Noise-Cancelling Headphones

Donated by Akin Gump Strauss Hauer & Feld

One of the most important tools in a lawyer's arsenal are her headphones. Now's your chance to invest in a pair that will last you through years of doc review or late night plane flights to visit clients.

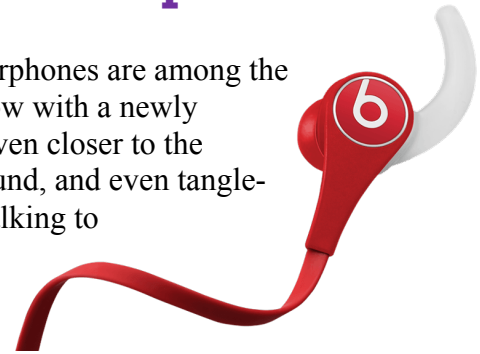

The Beats Acoustic Engine™ includes signature DSP software is designed to generate the emotional experience that Dr. Dre, Jimmy Iovine, and some of the music industry's greatest rock, hip-hop, pop, electronic, and R&B producers want you to feel. Combined with with Beats' no-compromise dual-mode Adaptive Noise Canceling, a 20-hour rechargeable battery, and a lighter, stronger design, and these are a pair of headphones you never knew you needed until you owned them.

T-003 - Beats by Dr. Dre Tour In-ear Headphones

Donated by Akin Gump Strauss Hauer & Feld

It's rare to find big sound in something so small. Beats Tour earphones are among the first earbuds to hold their own against over ear headphones. Now with a newly designed custom fit and improved sound quality, you can get even closer to the music. Including a built-in mic and song shuffler, improved sound, and even tangle-free cables, these are the perfect way to access the hyper-fast talking to which you're inevitably going to set your bar prep course lecture.

T-005 - iPad Air 2 (Wi-Fi, 64 GB, Space Gray)

Donated by Schulte Roth & Zabel

Delight your friends and relations by building a magazine rack – and then placing this on it.

A whopping 18% thinner, weighing less than a pound, with the very fastest graphics, a beautiful retina screen, and up to 10 hours of battery, this truly is the SCOTUS Clerkship of tablets.

T-006 - Kindle Fire HD7

Donated by Latham & Watkins

A powerful, full-featured 7-inch Fire HD tablet with fast quad-core processor, HD display, front and rear cameras and stereo speakers, this is the most popular Android tablet available.

Enjoy a beautiful 7" HD display—Crisp, vivid HD display (216 ppi / 1280x800) with over a million pixels—perfect for apps, movies, TV, games, photos, and more, with free, unlimited cloud storage for all Amazon content and photos taken with your Fire devices and access to over 33 million movies, TV shows, songs, books, Android apps and games—including Facebook, Netflix, Minecraft, and more.

T-007 & T-008 - iPad Mini & iPad Mini 2 (16 GB, Space Gray)

Donated by Orrick, Herrington & Sutcliffe (iPad Mini 2) and Akin Gump Strauss Hauer & Feld (iPad Mini)

With a 7.9-inch Retina display featuring more pixels than is really decent in an electronic device employed in polite society, as well as featuring an A7 chip incorporating enough patents to make even a hardened IP lawyer fall into a swoon on a divan, the iPad Mini 2 offers all the speed and usefulness of an iPad, but mini and, well, twice over?

Bonus feature: the 7.9 inch screen is almost precisely as wide as the standard justification of a SCOTUS opinion, so you could carry around the entire Supreme Court's latest term right there on one tablet! Now you have to buy it.

T-009 – iPhone 6 Plus (16 GB, Unlocked)

Donated by BloombergLaw

Admit it. You’ve been thinking of upgrading your phone. But thanks to the wonders of America’s “free market” for phone service, you’re leery of any upgrade that will pledge you to continued submission to your exploitative carrier du jour.

Enter this wonderful item – the very latest iPhone, with the requisite 4.7 inch retina display, lightning-fast processor, and sleek edges that comes not merely with 16 GB of memory but also unlocked, allowing you to use it anywhere (including, to think of just one set of places, all parts of the world that aren’t the USA). The perfect item for the LLM thinking of returning home, or the JD yearning to rid herself of 2-year contracts.

Vacations and Leisure Experiences

E-001 – Two Tickets to Aida at the Met

Donated by The Metropolitan Opera

Enjoy two Orchestra seats (read: among the best seats in the house) at the world's greatest opera company performing one of the world's greatest operas. Aida is grand opera at its grandest. From its countless supernumeraries, to its live horses, to its handsomely painted sets, and stage-elevator coups de théâtre, it takes the magnificent art form to its illogical, goofy, and grandiose extreme.

Verdi's mythic love triangle features Liudmyla Monastyrska, Tamara Wilson, and Oksana Dyka sharing the title role, with Olga Borodina and Violeta Urmana as Amneris and Marcello Giordani and Marco Berti singing Radamès. Marco Armiliato and Plácido Domingo share conducting duties.

Seats are in Orchestra Row P for the performance on April 13, 2015.

E-004 – Two NY SKYRIDE Tickets

Donated by NY Skyride

Movie. Motion. Sights. Zoom through the city's famous traffic even faster than New York's most skillful cabbie. Experience New York's most famous sites from views only daredevils can imagine! Soar a mile above the City That Never Sleeps – then zoom down to the sidewalk in the blink of an eye!

Located on the second floor of the Empire State Building, New York Skyride is an awesome aerial tour of New York City that sends you on a ride around, above and even below all the city has to offer... and you feel the sights from the comfort of a specially-equipped, motion-simulated, big-screen theater seat!

E-005 – Two Carnegie Hall Tickets

Donated by Carnegie Hall

These two tickets are good for any of the remaining performances in the 2014-2015 season. Enjoy New York's premiere concert hall, famous as the debut of some of the world's greatest musicians – and Florence Foster Jenkins, one of the worst (and yet most hilarious). Best of all, this allows you to get to Carnegie Hall by the express route (rather than through practice, practice, practice).

Listen to four of the world's greatest orchestras and some of the best soloists in classical music. Two tickets for the 2014-2015 season is a great way to spend this year with your loved ones!
